April Birthdays

In astrology, those born between April 1–19 are Rams of Aries. As the first sign of the zodiac, Arians charge out of the gate with energy, confidence, power, and zeal. As pioneers, Arians are unafraid of the unknown. As eternal optimists, no odds are ever considered insurmountable. Those born April 20–30 are Bulls of Taurus. Bulls show a steady persistence in endeavors both professional and personal, and after working hard, are not shy about rewarding themselves for a job well done.

We ask for men and women's clothing items (plus size too), accessories, home décor, toiletries, games, books, and anything else that can be thought of. If you donate, items can be dropped off in the Activity Office. If you have questions, please reach out to Aiden the Activity Director.

Who am I?

I was born on April 14th, 1973, in New York City. My career as an actor started when I was 13, appearing in Off-Broadway shows and a PBS movie. My big break was in Steven Soderbergh's King of the Hill (1993). I starred in The Pianist (2002), and won an Oscar for it, making me the youngest Best Actor winner and only winner under the age of 30. My most recent film, The Brutalist (2024), earned me an Oscar, BAFTA, Golden Globe, and Critics' Choice awards. Critics compared it to my work in The Pianist, saying it was my best since. I have won numerous awards for other films and stage work, and have been nominated for even more.

One Last Powwow

On April 24 and 25, Albuquerque, New Mexico, will host one of the largest gatherings of Indigenous Americans in the world when more than 700 tribes from the United States, Canada, and beyond arrive for the Gathering of Nations Powwow. First held more than 40 years ago, the Gathering of Nations has grown into the premier Native American cultural event in North America. Sadly, organizers have announced that the 2026 powwow will be its final year—"The Last Dance."

What makes the powwow so special? It is a shared celebration of traditional Indigenous cultures—a feast for the eyes, ears, and mouth. With more than 30 judged categories, spirited competition in Native music, singing, and dancing involves everyone from children to elders. It is a remarkable sight to see men and women perform many different dances in their traditional regalia adorned with feathers, beads, and colorful clothing. Visitors should not miss the Grand Entry, when thousands of dancers in full costume enter the arena with great fanfare.
